ABEJA

THE NICHE

Abeja (Spanish for Bee) founders Ken and Ginger Harrison came to Walla Walla Valley in the late 1990s in search of land suitable for planting world class Cabernet Sauvignon. They discovered an extraordinary historic farmstead that captured their hearts and sparked their imagination. They preserved the property's rich heritage while creating a one-of-a-kind Walla Walla wine country destination by renovating its historic outbuildings while also planting top quality vineyards. Today, winemakers Dan Wampfler & Amy Alvarez-Wampfler create handcrafted wines that are the result of meticulous viticultural practices; customized small lot fermentation and aging; and selective blending. Abeja's wines are old world in style with that stamp of pure, lush Washington fruit.

Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley

Dense aromas of black stone fruits, fragrant allspice and berry are captivating and generous on the nose. A surge of ripe plum defines the mouth-filling entry yet shows restraint in a well-crafted palate which displays grip and structure. Finally, layers of bright cherry, sage, and clove come into focus and leading into a lasting, memorable finish.

Chardonnay Washington State

Brilliant in color with a pale-yellow hue, the Washington Chardonnay offers a generous nose of apple blossoms, nutmeg and lemon curd. Melon and white peach coat the palate, followed by notes of quince and golden apple that linger on a vibrant, mouthwatering finish.

Merlot Columbia Valley

A fresh nose brimming with crushed berries and black cardamom instantly lures and continues throughout. The body is round and well-structured with fine tannins revealing accents of cocoa, Oolong tea and strawberry preserves leading into a decadent finish.

DOUBLE CANYON

Our job is to seek out parcels of land that present an opportunity to cultivate great wines. In 2007, we did just that, when we founded Double Canyon. Our focus has been crafting exceptional Cabernet Sauvignon from pedigreed vineyard sites, anchored by our namesake Double Canyon Vineyard in Horse Heaven Hills. For the past 50 years, Horse Heaven Hills has produced some of the most revered fruit in Washington. Our 90-acre Double Canyon Vineyard, named for two ravines that run through the property, was selected for its desirable location and proximity to the Columbia River. Influenced by volcanic activity, ancient glacial deposits, desert soils, and a persistent wind that blows off the river, our wines capture the distinctive character of this renowned appellation.

Impactful deep cherry aromas with hints of vanilla, dark chocolate and clove open your mind to the tasting experience to ensue. The first entry to the pallet is silky smooth, brimming with notes of ripe blackberry and tart currant, and finishes with toasted vanilla, oak, and baking spices. With approachable tannins, the finish is lengthy and subtle. Pairs nicely with hearty meat dishes such as roasted lamb with grilled asparagus or for a meatless pairing try it with eggplant parmesan.

Leonetti Cellar was founded by Gary and Nancy Figgins in 1977. Gary's grandparents, Francesco and Rosa Leonetti established the family farm in 1906. It is here that Gary first planted a few cuttings of Cabernet Sauvignon and Riesling – creating his first commercial vineyard and unknowingly establishing an entire industry in Walla Walla. Building off the inspiration he gleaned from his grandfather's bubbling fermentations on the farm's dirt floor basement, he named the winery to honor his family's roots. Today, Gary's son, Chris Figgins oversees winemaking and operations for Figgins Family Wine Estates which includes Leonetti Cellar, Figgins and Toil wines.

NOVELTY HILL JANUIK

TWO ACCLAIMED WINERIES, ONE CELEBRATED VINTNER

Novelty Hill and Januik are two independent wineries that share a destination tasting room and state-of-the-art winery under the direction of Mike Januik, one of Washington State's most acclaimed winemakers. The Novelty Hill and Januik partnership began in 2000, shortly after Mike began consulting on the planting of the Alberg family's Stillwater Creek Vineyard on the Royal Slope of the Frenchman Hills in Washington State's Columbia Valley. Though an uncharted growing region at the time, Mike liked what the site offered and was intrigued by the Albergs' interest in planting a diverse selection of clones. He encouraged the family to consider making wine from the site; they agreed, provided Mike serve as winemaker. Novelty Hill was born.

Chardonnay Stillwater Creek Vineyard

A balanced, elegant wine. Crisp apple, juicy pear, a streak of citrus and a hint of baking spice blend seamlessly across a rich, round mid-palate. The finish is long and lush, leaving a smooth, graceful impression.

Merlot Columbia Valley

Polished and focused, with cocoa, red currant and black cherry aromas and flavors stretching across a supple mid-palate. The wine's refined tannins linger on a long, expressive finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley

Rich and concentrated, this full-bodied, aromatic Cabernet Sauvignon offers expressive layers of ripe plum, black currant and wild blackberries. A textured, mouth-filling wine true to its varietal character with a balanced, refined finish.

Syrah Columbia Valley

A deep, ruby red wine. Layers of exotic spice, dark stone fruit and wild blackberry aromas and flavors gain focus across a firmly textured midpalate. Rich and mouth-filling, with refined tannins that linger on a dense, expressive finish.

TOP SKUS – Januik

Chardonnay

Rich and elegant, has hints of Meyer lemon, Asian pear, and green apple as well as a slight mineral quality. It has a rich creamy texture on the palate and a bright lengthy finish.

Merlot

This supple, medium-bodied Merlot shows layers of black cherry, boysenberry and plum notes in the nose that translate into fleshy black fruit and chocolate flavors in the mouth. Brimming with a tremendous amount of texture and length.

Cabernet Sauvignon

This supple, rich Cabernet Sauvignon is packed with currant and black cherry flavors as well as plum, chocolate and vanilla notes in the nose. Its texture is quite refined and shows great structure throughout the mouth, imparting a long, luxurious finish that was developed in part from the use of new French Oak barrels.

Andrew Januik Stone Cairn Red Mountain Red

This deep purple wine is overflowing withassis, black raspberry and chocolate notes. It is multi-layered and textured with flavors that range from spice to mocha and dark fruit. The finish is long and brimming with the bright acidity and supple tannins that are indicative of Red Mountain.

Vireton Willamette Valley Pinot Gris

This wine bursts from the glass, with zesty grapefruit followed by fresh and floral aromatics. The juicy acidity plays a major role, bringing balance to the wine and perfectly offsetting the salinity. Combining ripe orchard fruit and a touch of sea breeze, the Vireton Pinot Gris is crisp, lively, and tremendously refreshing

Vireton Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

The bouquet is layered, with a fruity core of raspberry, cranberry, and red currants surrounded by oak and earthen spice. Silky tannins and fresh fruit jam nudge the palate, giving way to hints of warm baking spices. A model Willamette Valley wine, the Vireton Pinot Noir is juicy, fruit-forward, and wonderfully balanced.

Archery Summit Dundee Hills Pinot Noir

The Dundee Hills Pinot Noir touts all the hallmarks of the storied appellation. It begins with brambleberry, ripe rainier cherry, blackberry blossoms, cocoa powder, and spice on the nose. The palate is just as lively, with fresh, juicy red fruit backed by graceful tannins and acid. Argyle Pinot Noir Willamette Valley

Argyle Pinot Noir showcases the purity of fruit and nimble texture the Willamette Valley has to offer. Fermented entirely in small, 1.5 ton lots and plunged by hand, the wine leans red cherry, pomegranate, and spiced tea. Fresh, vibrant acidity is framed with polished tannin along with classic Argyle silky texture and persistent length.

Argyle Chardonnay Willamette Valley

Blended between our 4 vineyard sites, Argyle Chardonnay displays the tension of the Eola-Amity Hills, the delicacy of the Dundee Hills, while newly incorporating a small amount of our first vintage of Coast Range marine sedimentary chardonnay. Fermented and aged on the lees for 11 months in French oak barrel, the wine displays lemon blossom, white peach, and mineral spice. Lively, fresh acidity finishes clean, and pure.

Argyle Vintage Brut

The 2018 sparkling wine vintage in the Willamette Valley was precise, Knudsen Vineyard, protected in the deep volcanic soils of the Dundee Hills, brings supple depth and elegance, while Spirit Hill Vineyard, in the windy and rocky volcanic soils of the Eola-Amity Hills, brings energy and spicy minerality. Poached apricot, fresh ginger, and roasted almond are framed around a creamy center and long, graceful finish.

Reserve Pinot Noir

Predominately based in the volcanic red soils of the Dundee Hills and Eola-Amity Hills, our Reserve Pinot Noir showcases spicy elegance and silky texture. Raspberry, dark plum, and cardamom and an underlying minerality weave with delicate, polished tannin and dynamic energy. Cold soaking and fermenting entirely in small, 1.5-ton fermenters enhances silkiness, while 20% whole cluster inclusion contributes layered complexity, and length.

Reserve Chardonnay

Grown in the volcanic soils of the Dundee Hills and Eola-Amity Hills between our 3 sites, Reserve Chardonnay showcases silky elegance and mineral tension. Gentle pressing and long aging in French oak for 16 months allows the delicacy to shine. Crisp apple, Meyer lemon, and ginger are poised with spicy lees-aged texture and energetic length.

OUR WINE.

THE NICHE

Cooper Mountain Vineyards took root in the Willamette Valley 45 years ago under the leadership of Dr. Bob Gross, a homeopathic doctor, and his wife Corinne. His goal was to make wines that best express the Northern Willamette valley – sunshine, cool nights, and fresh fruit that results in wines that are lively, but also show soul. When Cooper Mountain Vineyards got its start, there were just a handful of wine-makers in the Willamette Valley, and Cooper Mountain was a pioneer in biodynamic wine growing. Now in its second generation, Barbara Gross has led their focus on the future with growth to 200 acres of vineyards, including the addition of the iconic Chehalem Mountain vineyard to their estate, while continuing her father's strong bond to the land.

THE NICHE

It's 1974. Pat and Joe Campbell wind up a gravel road to an overgrown homestead in the foothills of the Coast Range Mountains. They didn't know it at the time, but they were wine pioneers. Forty years later, there are over 700 wineries in Oregon.

The Campbell's goal has always been hand-crafted, Estate-grown cool climate wines that rival the best in the world. As a second-generation winemaker and a 5th generation Oregon farmer, Adam Campbell is proud to continue that tradition. He now oversees six vineyard sites with 380 acres planted. That's over 10 times the total acreage of all Oregon vineyards when Pat and Joe planted that very first vine in 1974.

THE NICHE

When King Estate was founded in 1991, it was driven by a commitment to sustainability and profound respect for the land. The adventurous spirit that inspired us from the beginning continues to guide us as we nurture our vineyards to craft premium Oregon wines.

Our story is woven into the history of Oregon wine, where winemaking is synonymous with discovery and sustainability. The last 30 years have been focused on innovation, craft, and a deep sense of respect for the land, the vines and the people who enjoy our wines. We have been establishing our traditions, one vintage at a time. This ongoing focus on innovation led to the launch of Inscription, one of the fastest growing Willamette Pinot Noir brands in the United States.

Inscription Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

Bright cherry, raspberry and strawberry notes greet the nose, along with fresh rose petals, baking spices and hints of earth. Bright acidity on the entrance combines with the showy red fruit and flavors of forest floor, rhubarb, sage and toast on the palate. Round, supple tannins provide an exceptionally good transition to the finish, with structured tannins providing nice body and length.

King Estate Willamette Valley Pinot Gris

Glistening pale straw color with aromas of fresh Bartlett pear, ripe white peach, wildflowers and crushed gravel. There are immediate fruit flavors that dance on the pallet like peach, Key lime, nectarine and ripe pear. These fruit flavors are balanced by fresh acidity and fleshy viscosity. There is a lingering elegant finish that begs to be paired with soft cheeses and charcuterie. Drink now and at least through the next decade.

King Estate Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

A deep garnet color with bright red edges. The nose is expressive with fruit forward notes of ripe strawberry, Bing cherry and black tea, framed by subtle aromas of cigar box and toasted vanilla. The flavors tend toward the red fruit spectrum, with raspberry and ripe strawberry leading the way. There are sweet oak flavors from the barrel aging along with gentle vanilla tinges. Enjoy now through 2037.

SINCE 1999

THE NICHE

Lemelson Vineyards began as a dream — a dream to create a winery that celebrates innovation in technology, sustainability in agriculture, and tradition in winemaking. In 1999, Eric Lemelson, an environmental lawyer, climate change activist, and LEED building specialist, crafted his first vintage to further his commitment to the environment, to the land, and to his community. Utilizing organic farming and gravity flow production, Lemelson crafts expressive Pinot Noir, Pinot Gris, Chardonnay and Riesling from estate vineyards throughout the Willamette Valley.

ESTATE VINEYARDS
Stermer Vineyard (Yamhill-Carlton AVA)
Meyer Vineyard (Dundee Hills AVA)
Chestnut Hill Vineyard (Chehalem Mountains AVA)
Johnson Vineyard (Yamhill-Carlton AVA)
Rocky Noel Vineyard (Yamhill Carlton AVA)

KEY SELLING POINTS

- Sustainable & Organic: Sustainability is at the core of Lemelson vineyards reflecting the values of owner Eric Lemelson, an environmental lawyer, climate change and energy policy activist and builder of high performance LEED buildings. All vineyards have been farmed organically since the beginning and certified by Oregon Tilth since 2004.
- Fun Fact: Eric's father, Jerome, was a prolific inventor and the propeller beanie emblem on Lemelson's corks and labels celebrates one of his first patents.
- 100% Estate: Lemelson farms 5 estate vineyards from three AVA's (Yamhill Carlton, Chehalem Mountains, & Dundee Hills) offering an array of soil types and characteristics. This model, common in Burgundy, gives them full control to farm with precision and adds to the quality of their wines.
- Innovation: Lemelson's sophisticated, gravity-flow winery is particularly suited to gentle handling of Pinot Noir and continues the commitment to sustainability in the choice of local building materials and concrete caves.
