THE NICHE

Luck, fate, and a single-minded determination to make world-class wine in Oregon led David and Ginny Adelsheim to purchase their first 19 acres outside Newberg, OR in 1971. Drawn to the uniqueness of the land and its proximity to Portland, it was here they decided to plant their first rows of Pinot Noir along Quarter Mile Lane and establish the Chehalem Mountains' first-ever winery in 1978—Adelsheim. With an optimistic spirit and a lofty dream: to create world-class Pinot Noir and Chardonnay Adelsheim has played an instrumental role in nearly every aspect of the Oregon wine story. As leaders, we believe it is our duty to be steadfast stewards of this abundant land and to rally our community in support of equity and education.

TOP SKUS

Adelsheim Willamette Valley Chardonnay

“This wine has such a wonderful, lifted floral component—it just wafts out of the glass. I also love the freshness and vibrancy of the fruit. It makes me want to go pick ripe pears right off the tree. The palate really brings this wine home for me; it’s refreshing and luscious, yet complex and thoughtful.”

Adelsheim Willamette Valley Pinot Noir

“Lush red cherries and delicate baking spices on the nose, along with sneaky hints of lavender and honeysuckle. This is positively vibrant on the palate, bursting with freshness. The texture is supple with smooth tannins leading into the finish.”

Adelsheim Staking Claim Chardonnay

“Aromas of fresh apples and white talc, with a quiet underpinning of white flowers. On the palate there’s a coiled sensibility to this wine, like it’s lying in wait to spring out at you. This is buffered by a cool, creamy lusciousness that carries into a long finish.”

Adelsheim Breaking Ground Pinot Noir

“Deliciously layered aromas of black cherry and black raspberry lift out of the glass, followed by exotic spice notes and a dark, rich loamy quality. This wine is like satin in the mouth—so supple. It toes the line between ethereal and ponderous in the most delightful way.”

Adelsheim Artist Series Rosé

“My first impression is of strawberries and cream, framed with floral notes, citrus zest, and an intriguing minerality. The palate is supple and juicy and provides a balanced framework. I want to drink this every day of the year—with the excitement of a new spring, in the middle of the summer heat, and for a cozy Thanksgiving dinner.”
