High N' Wicked Singular Limited Release No. 4 - "Aeneas Coffey" - named after the famed Irishman, inventor of the Continuous Coffey Column Still.

Aeneas Coffey invented and patented the continuous column still in 1830. It revolutionized the distillation of grain by creating considerable efficiencies through a continuous process that a pot still cannot match through its batch process. Today, the Coffey Column Still is in use the world over for the distillation of Bourbon, Scotch, Japanese and Irish Whiskies and Rum. We honor his memory with this Single Grain Whiskey finished in Madeira

This distinctive Whiskey was finished by Noel Sweeney one of the most awarded distillers / blenders in the global whiskey category, and recognized in the Whisky Hall of Fame.

Bottled at 50% ABV - 100 Proof, and Non-Chill Filtered with no additives.
